

PATRON: HRH THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH

9TH WINDSOR FESTIVAL INTERNATIONAL STRING COMPETITION

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN

Closing Date 24th November 2023, 23:59 GMT

Live Rounds: Windsor, UK, 10th - 16th MARCH 2024

Open to violinists, violists & cellists of every nationality aged 16-26 on 10th March 2024

WFISC 2019 Winner
Jonathan Swensen

"Every time I look back, I notice that without WFISC I would never have even imagined myself reaching so far"

Jiyeon Lee, WFISC Winner 2015

The foremost of its kind in the world, this biennial competition seeks out the star performer of a generation, and launches the career of an exceptional violinist, violist or cellist.

WFISC 2021 Winner Daniil Bulayev, in prize performance
with Marin Alsop and the Philharmonia

Launched in 2008, in memory of festival founder Yehudi Menuhin, reaching all corners of the globe, we encourage, nurture, support and enable prodigious talent to come to fruition. WFISC launches the winner's career through a prize package bringing together in Windsor the world's most esteemed artists, Champs Hill recordings, Royal Philharmonic Orchestra concerto performances, recitals, management and instruments. Sharing knowledge, aspiration and experience, we forge international connections for the future.

"Everything about it was inspirational, and to then also be signed by Hazard Chase for management as a result was incredible."

Nathan Meltzer,
WFISC Winner 2017

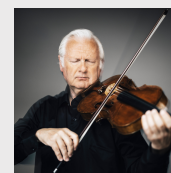

WFISC 2024 PANEL OF INTERNATIONAL JURY

Natalie Clein

Joji Hattori

Lars Tomter

JOINED FOR THE FINAL BY:

Martin Denny, Director, Windsor Festival

Alexander Van Ingen, Executive
Producer, Champs Hill Records

James Williams, Managing Director,
Royal Philharmonic Orchestra